CHARTREUSE & CHOCOLATE: A MONASTIC MATCH

Original Sin and Chartreuse invite you to an indulgent evening of mysterious herbal concoctions paired with delectable treats hand-selected by local chocolatiers Slab & Tipple.

UK Brand Ambassador Jenny Griffiths will guide you through the rich history of Chartreuse dating back to 1605. As you sip Chartreuse cocktails you'll be regaled with very French tales of monks & monasteries, mystery & intrigue, and kings & queens.

As always, you will then be allowed the rare opportunity to step behind the bar. Building on knowledge gained in part one, you'll work with our bartenders to create your own unique Chartreuse cocktail.

The best cocktail idea will feature on the menu for one month and the talented creator will win a bottle of Chartreuse.

Tickets £20pp
